

POLICE WATCH FOR ESCAPED MURDERER

Local police officers Thursday were on the lookout for Will Hudson, escaped convict, following information from the state penitentiary at Nashville that Hudson made his escape Monday. Hudson was serving a life term for murder. He made his getaway from the state mines at Brushy Mountain.

In January, 1917, Hudson and another negro shot Walter Hoover, an attempted holdup in North Memphis. Hoover was returning from a picture show with his small daughter. The murder was so brutal that feeling among citizens in North Memphis reached a high point and at one time violence was threatened.

The Dead

LEXINGTON, Tenn.—The funeral of Mrs. Fannie Austrey, wife of T. Austrey, a prominent merchant of this county, took place Wednesday, near Tuno, eight miles west of Lexington. Mrs. Austrey was 48 years old and left no children. Elder J. O. Brown, of the Christian church, officiated at the service.

RIPLEY, Miss.—John Norton, 80 formerly of Arkansas, who resided with his daughter, Mrs. Nannie Stephens for the last few months, seven miles east of here, died Tuesday. He was buried in the Pine Hill graveyard in this county.

COVINGTON, Tenn.—The funeral of Lemuel Emmet Greer, 26, who died Tuesday, was held at the family residence on Main street, Wednesday, by the Rev. C. E. Wauford, pastor of the First Baptist church of Covington, after which the burial took place in Mumfords cemetery. He is survived by his widow, two children, a son and daughter; his mother, Mrs. Celestia P. Greer, two brothers and four sisters.

MANILA, Ark.—The body of Houghton Long, 29, oldest son of Dr. B. A. and Mary Long, was buried here Wednesday. Houghton died at Bend, near Portland, Ore., recently. The body was brought back to his home for interment.

BRISTOL, Tenn.—Funeral services for Owen R. Sharrett, a well-known citizen, who died at his home here, were conducted Monday at the home. Rev. N. M. Watson, assisted by Rev. J. A. L. H. Hunter, officiated. Interment was in East Hill cemetery. He is survived by his widow, two sons and one daughter.

BRISTOL, Tenn.—Mrs. Sally Rooper, widow of the late W. B. Rooper, died at her home near Weavers, according to information received here, surviving her one son and one daughter.

FLORENCE, Ala.—Mrs. Fagn, wife of Tony Fagn, young business man of this city, died suddenly at his home here of heart disease. The funeral services were held at the Catholic church Tuesday, Rev. Father Francis officiating. Burial took place in the Florence cemetery. She is survived by her husband and eight children.

TOCOPOILA, Miss.—Mrs. Caleb Furr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wilbanks, and a former resident of the Longview neighborhood in the northeastern part of this county, died at her home in Capeville, Tenn., recently, of typhoid fever. The body was brought back to her old home for burial Saturday. Rev. Tunnell conducting the services.

CANDIDATES FILE THEIR PLEDGES AT NEWPORT

NEWPORT, Ark., July 22 (SpL)—The following candidates for the various county offices have filed their pledges and qualified under the state law, and will enter the Jackson county primary August 18:

BOY 19, GIRL 14, MARRY.

SEARCY, Ark., July 22 (SpL)—Wade Heffner, 19, and Miss Edith Buston, 14, of Beebe, secured license to be married on Sunday at Beebe. Mr. Heffner came on Friday to get license, but owing to the youthful age of both parties county clerk, Yingling told Mr. Heffner that he could not issue the license without an order from parents of both. He returned to Beebe and on Saturday morning returned with not only his father but the father of the young lady as well. Hence he went away properly armed to have the canonical knot tied the next day as previously planned.

SISSON FIXES DATES FOR SPEAKING TOUR

TOCOPOILA, Miss., July 22 (SpL)—Hon. T. U. Sisson, present member of congress from the Fourth congressional district and candidate for reelection at the August primaries, will address the people of Pontotoc county at the following places:
